Key Texts

What I like about me

By Allia Zobel Nolan

The kids in What I Like About Me are as different as night and day. And guess what? They love it! Some adore the fact that their braces dazzle and gleam—others feel distinguished when they wear their glasses. Still others wouldn't trade their big feet for a lifetime of free video games. This fun-loving book features entertaining flaps, pull tabs, and touch-and-feel elements such as embedded foil yarn and more. And it proves to kids that in a world where fitting in is the norm, being different is what makes us special.

Once there were giants

By Martin Waddell

There is a baby who lives among giants.... Soon the baby grows a little and can walk and talk. Then, one day, the baby is all grown up and has a baby of her own. Suddenly there are giants in the house again, and she realises, "One of the giants is...ME!" Martin Waddell and Penny Dale trace the cycle of family life as it goes from one generation to the next in this warm picture book.

The great big book of Families

By Mary Hoffman

This fun and fascinating treasury features all kinds of families and their lives together. Each spread showcases one aspect of home life - from houses and holidays, to schools and pets, to feelings and family trees. Ros Asquith's humorous illustrations perfectly complement a charming text from the acclaimed Mary Hoffman; kids will love poring over these pages again and again. The Great Big Book of Families is a great big treat for every family to share.
