kennings Poem

kennings Poems are poems that use two-word phrases called Kennings. They describe what a person, idea or object is or does.

They work like a riddle - you have to guess what it's all about!

We use Kennings in our everyday language, such as 'sky-scraper' for a very tall building.

Each line is a simple phrase of either a noun +a noun OR a noun +a verb.

Information Booklet

An information text is a piece of non-fiction writing which gives information about a particular thing (for example: Ancient Egypt, rocks or volcanoes)

Main title - This sums up the topic

Headings and sub-headings - These are used to introduce the content of different paragraphs to help the reader navigate the text.

Paragraphs - These are the main bodies of text that include the topic information.

Bullet-pointed lists - Ordering key information in a list is a great way of telling the reader what they need to know about the subject.

Photographs and illustrations - Information texts include images to make the information easier to understand. These can be realistic photos or annotated diagrams.

Captions- Captions are used to describe included photographs and illustrations.

kennings Poem - Who Am I?

Sea prowler, fish gobbler,
grey shadowy threat

Shade giver, leaf dropper, sturdy wooden swayer

Bright beamer, warmth giver, life-giving fire

Healer, stealer, wrinkle give

Clear runner, sea filler,
gusher and rippler
